

Clinical Exercise Physiology UK

Curriculum Sharing Event

6th September 2022
The Spine, Liverpool, UK

Time	Talk & Speaker
09:00 – 09:15	Arrival and Tea and Coffee
09:15 – 09:45	Introduction and Overview of the curriculum framework and Q&A Prof Helen Jones, Chair of CEP-UK
09:45 - 10:15	Course accreditation process and regulation of Clinical Exercise Physiologists and Q&A Lizanne Steenkamp, Head of Accreditation for the AHCS (incorporating RCCP)
10:15 – 10:45	Learning from the Australian system and Q&A Dr Chris Askew, University of Sunshine Coast and Ex President of ESSA
10:45 - 11:00	Refreshment Break
11:00 - 11:30	University of Western Australia – What have we learnt? Balancing university and ESSA requirements and Q&A Dr Louise Naylor, University of Western Australia
11:30 – 12:00	The Benefits of having Exercise Physiologists as Part of the Rehabilitation MDT and Q&A Dr Ros Leslie Head of Allied Health Professionals, Royal Wolverhampton Hospitals Trust
12:00 – 12:30	Example of current UK MSc in Clinical Exercise Physiology- How LJMU do it? Dr Ellen Dawson, Liverpool John Moores University
12:30 – 13:15	Lunch
13.15-13.45	Importance of behaviour change Dr Paula Watson (Made Up To Move)
13:45 – 14:15	Example of current UK MSc in Clinical Exercise Physiology- How UCLan have sourced placements for CEP's Dr Stefan Birkett, University of Central Lancashire

14:15 – 14:45	Example of current UK MSc in Clinical Exercise Physiology – How Portsmouth sourced placements or provided alternatives Dr Andy Scott, University of Portsmouth
14:45 – 15:00	Refreshment Break
15:00 – 15:30	Simulation-based learning- an example from Nursing Mark Murphy, Liverpool John Moores University
15:30 – 16:00	Phase 3 and 4 Cardiac rehabilitation delivered within the university campus Dr Rachel Lord and Brian Begg, Cardiff Metropolitan University
16:00 – 16:30	Discussion and close